Fireside Chat with Graeme Treeby

Join us for a fireside conversation with Graeme Treeby. As a parent of a child with a disability and member of the Bright Futures team with over 30 years of experience we will be speaking with Graeme on his personal experience. Graeme will discuss what he has recommend for families and what he himself has done. You will have the ability to ask your own questions to Graeme and the Bright Futures Team.

The Bright Futures Ability Network is a team of experienced professionals all specializing in the support of families and individuals with disabilities. Our network was formed to bring together all the planning pieces to develop proactive strategies for their ongoing care and financial support— before and after a parent or caregiver’s passing. We provide a one stop planning experience to ensure your loved one will have a decent quality of life now and into the future.

About the Guest Speakers:

Graeme Treeby is a parent of an adult daughter with multiple disabilities. As the founder of the Special Needs Planning Group, he has devoted almost 3 decades to assisting families in planning for their loved one with a disability. His experience and knowledge can help you create a Bright Future for your son or daughter with a disability.

Erin Blair is a Certified Financial Planner and the Insurance Advisor for the Bright Futures team. Erin focuses on educating her clients and taking a holistic financial approach to insurance planning. Through her insurance planning our clients can achieve accessible long-term solutions for their loved ones.

Derrick Lee-Shanok is an Investment Advisor who is dedicated to helping his clients establish solid investment foundations for financial stability and security. He began his career in finance in 1998, working in a variety of sales and customer service positions before becoming a financial advisor in 2005. In 2008, he moved to work with Dundee Private Investors, now part of Investia Financial Services Inc, and created the Ability Private Client Group as an independent team specialized in helping families with disabled loved ones.
